PETITE STEEL BENCH WITH SEAHORSE HEADS, HOOVED FEET AND SHELF, CIRCA 1950

$2,250

This small size steel bench from the mid-20th century features a very unique Silhouette. The steel seat is slightly curved to provide more comfort. The eye is immediately drawn to the whimsical legs, made of seahorses. Below the seat is a shelf that seamlessly melds with the legs. This would be a wonderful place for a magazine. This unique cast steel bench circa 1950-1960 would look wonderful in a living room covered with a soft cushion or could also be used to display your favorite accessories such as a wicker basket, magazines or pillows.
