

1920S GERMAN BLACK FOREST PLANTER WITH VINES AND FOUR TRUNCATED POTS

$1,950

This early 20th century Black Forest wood planter is composed of a shaped base supporting four bores, a very short one in front, a great one in the center flanked by two shorter tilted ones. Each support a ribbed truncated cone-shaped planter box all connected with highly decorative carved twisted vines. This original planter with four pots circa 1920, with its dark patina and vegetal decor characteristic of the Black Forest style, can hold multiple plants at once while give your lawn or garden a charming rustic look.
