ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY OAK BENCH WITH SPOOL TURNED LEGS AND CAMEL LEATHER SEAT

$6,750

An English oak bench from the 19th century, with spool turned legs, leather upholstery, nailhead trim and brass feet. Created in England during the 19th century, this oak bench features a rectangular seat covered with a camel color leather fabric secured with a brass nailhead trim, resting on a simple apron. The ensemble is raised on four eye-catching spool turned legs mounted on petite brass feet. Boasting a nice patina, this English 19th century oak bench with leather upholstery will make for a wonderful addition to any home, placed in a dining room around a table, in a bedroom or living room.
