BIEDERMEIER PERIOD 19TH CENTURY PINE CENTER TABLE WITH ROUND TOP AND TRIPOD BASE

$8,400

An Austrian Biedermeier period pine center table from the 19th century, with circular top, pedestal, tripod base and black ebonized spheres. Created in Austria during the Biedermeier period, this pine center table features a round top sitting above an hexagonal pedestal. The ensemble is raised on a tripod base made of three delicately curving legs accented with ebonized spheres whose black color creates a perfect contrast with the pine's honey color. With its elegant lines and complimenting tones, this Austrian Biedermeier period pine center table from the 19th century will make for a wonderful addition to any home, placed in a living room, bedroom or foyer!
