ENGLISH 1880S BLACK AND GOLD JAPANNED SIDE TABLE WITH CHINOISERIE DÉCOR

$5,995

An English black and gold japanned side table circa 1880 with Chinoiserie décor depicting architectures in landscapes, birds, trees and flowers, with single drawer and turned fluted legs. This English black and gold japanned side table, dating back to the last quarter of the 19th century, will effortlessly draw the viewer's attention with its mesmerizing Chinoiserie décor and complimenting color palette. The captivating scenes adorning the table's surface transport the viewer to a serene world of elegant architectures nestled within picturesque landscapes, complete with delicate birds, lush trees, and blooming flowers. The side table features a single, discreet drawer that blends seamlessly into the design, offering both practicality and a touch of intrigue. The table is supported by four expertly turned fluted legs, which harmoniously merge strength and elegance, showcasing the masterful artistry of the era. The luxurious black and gold japanned finish serves as a canvas for the intricate Chinoiserie décor, creating a striking visual contrast and emphasizing the remarkable attention to detail. The table's captivating scenes evoke a sense of serenity and inspire contemplation of the peaceful, idyllic life portrayed within the landscapes. The side table's distinctive blend of Eastern and Western design elements, combined with the rich history of its English origins, make it a truly unique piece that will add character and charm to any living space. With its alluring Chinoiserie décor, elegant fluted legs, and practical single drawer, this English black and gold japanned side table from the late 19th century is a testament to the enduring appeal of beautifully crafted furniture and serves as a stunning focal point in any home.
