ENGLISH 1890S OAK HALL BENCH WITH CYLINDRICAL ARMRESTS AND CARVED APRON

$2,850

An English oak bench from the late 19th century, with carved foliage and cylindrical armrests. Created in England during the last quarter of the 19th century, this oak hall bench features a rectangular seat with carved edges, accented with two cylindrical turned armrests. The bench is raised on four legs connected to one another through a foliage-carved apron in the front. With its clean lines, skillfully executed décor and oak patina, this hall bench circa 1890 will bring a touch of undeniable elegance to any home, particularly placed in a hallway, living room or dining room.
