

ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY FAUX BAMBOO CONSOLE TABLE WITH DRAWER AND WHITE MARBLE TOP

$5,995

An English faux bamboo console table from the 19th century, with white marble top, single drawer, side stretchers and petite ball feet. Created in England during the 19th century period, this console table features a rectangular white marble top with protruding rounded corners, sitting above a single drawer showcasing two turned wooden pulls. This single drawer presents a hand-cut dovetail construction revealing its age. The table is raised on an elegant faux bamboo base with ebonized accents, made of four tapering legs resting on petite feet and connected to one another through stretchers on two sides. The side panels and the back are decorated in the same vein. With its clean lines, charming faux bamboo structure and white marble top, this English console table with single drawer from the 19th century will bring an exotic touch of elegance to any home, perhaps displayed in a living room, bedroom or study!
