ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY GILTWOOD CONVEX GIRANDOLE BULLSEYE MIRROR WITH EAGLE MOTIF

$22,500

An English giltwood convex girandole bullseye mirror from the 19th century, with carved eagle motif. Created in England during the 19th century, this giltwood girandole mirror attracts our attention with its eagle marking the upper section. His detailed winged extended, the eagle is standing on grapes. The circular frame, surrounding a convex mirror plate, is accented with petite spheres and an ebonized inner molding, while the ensemble is completed with a sunburst motif adorning the lower section. With its great presence and lovely colors, this 19th century English bullseye mirror will bring a stately presence to any wall.
