ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY MAHOGANY BOW FRONT CONSOLE TABLE WITH CROSS BANDING

$8,500

A long English Neoclassical style mahogany bow front console table from the 19th century, with three drawers, banding and tapered legs. Created in England during the 19th century, this Neoclassical style mahogany console table features a shaped top with bow front and protruding extremities in the back, sitting above three elegant drawers. Indeed, two rectangular drawers surround a smaller one in the center, all adorned with banding showcasing an oval shape in the middle. Their dovetail construction reveals the piece's good age. The table is raised on four tapered legs with cross-banded inlay in the lower section, evoking thus the presence of spade feet. With its clean lines, exquisite mahogany veneer and delicate inlay contrasting beautifully with the rest of the structure, this English bow front console table from the 19th century will bring a touch of Classical elegance to any home, placed in a living room or dining room!
