

ENGLISH 19TH CENTURY THREE-TIERED ÉTAGÈRE WITH LOW DRAWER AND TURNED SUPPORTS

$4,750

An English mahogany three-tiered étagère from the 19th century with lower drawer, turned supports and casters. This exquisite English mahogany étagère, hailing from the 19th century, elegantly stands on casters, offering both mobility and grace. It features three tiers of shelving, providing ample display space for books, collectibles, or decorative items. Each shelf is supported by beautifully turned supports, adding a touch of sophistication and detail to the piece. The inclusion of a lower drawer offers discreet storage for personal items or living room essentials, making it not only a statement piece but also a practical addition to any space. In a modern home, this étagère could serve multiple purposes: as a chic bookshelf in a cozy reading nook, a display for cherished family heirlooms in a living room, or even as an elegant plant stand to bring a touch of nature indoors. Its timeless design and rich mahogany finish allow it to blend seamlessly with various interior styles, from traditional to contemporary. The combination of utility and aesthetic appeal makes this piece a valuable addition to any home, offering a blend of 19th-century charm and functionality.
