ENGLISH MIDCENTURY OAK JOINT STOOL WITH CARVED APRON, TURNED LEGS AND BUN FEET

$1,650

An English oak joint stool from the mid 20th century, with carved apron, turned legs and bun feet. Created in England during the Midcentury period, this oak joint stool features a rectangular top with beveled edges, sitting above an apron carved on two sides. Raised on four turned, slightly splaying column-shaped legs, the stool is strengthened by side stretchers and is resting on bun feet. With its simple lines and oak patina, this Midcentury joint stool will bring a touch of elegance to any kitchen, living room or hallway.
