ENGLISH TURN OF THE CENTURY IRON SCULPTURE OF AN EAGLE PERCHED ON A ROCK

$2,850

An English iron sculpture from the early 20th century depicting an eagle perched on a rock, with dark brown patina. Created in England during the Turn of the Century which saw the transition between the 19th to the 20th century, this iron sculpture depicts a majestic eagle peacefully perched on a rock. The bird is represented with great finessed in its details, particularly on his plumage. He is turning his head to the left, as if attracted by a scene invisible to us. The iron rock on which he is gripping his talons, is itself mounted on a larger real one. Its light color contrasts with and compliments the sculpture's dark brown patina beautifully. With its noble presence and skillful execution, this Turn of the Century English iron sculpture circa 1900 will make for a great decorative addition to any home, whether placed indoors on a credenza or outdoors in a garden!
