FRENCH 1900 ROCOCO STYLE PAINTED CONSOLE TABLE WITH SCROLLING LEGS AND STRETCHER

$2,995

A French Rococo style painted console table from the early 20th century, with frieze drawer, scrolling legs and cross stretcher.

Born in France at the turn of the 20th century during the Belle-Époque era, this exquisite painted console table features the stylistic traits of the Rococo period. A lovely serpentine top sits above a scalloped apron comprising a single frieze drawer, grooved on the sides for the runner. The table is raised on four eye-catching scrolling legs connected to one another through a cross-stretcher of similar style, the ensemble resting on petite feet. The table has been recently painted in a soft white color, whose delicate hue compliments the piece's sinuous lines perfectly. With its graceful silhouette and lovely finish, this French Rococo style console table circa 1900 will bring a refined touch to any home, perhaps placed in a foyer, living room or bedroom.
