

FRENCH 1900S TURN OF THE CENTURY FAUX-BAMBOO MIRROR WITH SLANTED ACCENTS

$1,150

A French Turn of the Century faux-bamboo mirror from circa 1900 with intersecting corners, slanted accents and deep brown color. Imbue your living space with the rustic elegance of this French Turn of the Century faux-bamboo mirror, a period gem circa 1900 that exudes old-world charm and grace. A harmonious blend of design and functionality, this mirror effortlessly enhances your décor. The frame boasts the classic faux-bamboo construction, where intersecting corners and slanted accents come together to create an aura of understated sophistication. The deep brown color of the frame bathes the mirror in a rich, inviting warmth, reminiscent of French countryside cottages and their alluring simplicity. The mirror plate is pristinely clear, casting reflections with refined clarity. Its seamless integration with the faux-bamboo frame invites an organic, harmonious feel that effortlessly brings the piece together. The back of the mirror is wired, catering to your convenience by allowing for vertical hanging. Whether placed in a hallway, gracing the mantle of a fireplace, or accentuating a cozy bedroom, this mirror is versatile and complements various settings. In a nutshell, this French Turn of the Century faux-bamboo mirror is a splendid fusion of rustic beauty and artisanal craftsmanship. It's an exquisite addition, perfect for those who cherish historical elegance and wish to bring a touch of French charm to their homes.
