FRENCH 19TH CENTURY BLEACHED WOOD BUFFET WITH BRASS STUDS AND WEATHERED PATINA

$7,200

A French bleached wood buffet from the 19th century, with carved apron and nicely distressed patina. Created in France during the 19th century, this bleached wood buffet features a rectangular top with rounded corners and brass studs, sitting above a single drawer. Showcasing two doors with scrolling panels and Rococo style hardware opening to reveal inner shelves, the buffet is resting on four feet connected to one another through a scalloping apron in the front. With its elegant lines and natural patina, this 19th century bleached wood buffet will bring a touch of authenticity to any living room or dining room.
