

FRENCH 19TH CENTURY GILTWOOD MIRROR WITH LINEAR FRAME AND REEDED ACCENTS

$1,500

A French giltwood mirror from the 19th century with linear rectangular frame, reeded accents and red undertone. Behold the fusion of opulence and antiquity in this French giltwood mirror, a treasure dating back to the 19th century. Enveloped in a golden aura, the linear rectangular frame is crafted from giltwood, its surface adorned with meticulous reeded accents that ripple across the frame like gentle waves of golden sand. Peeking through the gilded tapestry is an alluring red undertone, a whisper of passion and fervor that adds depth and character. The frame is securely fastened with petite nails, their presence a nod to the authentic craftsmanship of a bygone era. The mirror plate, kissed by time, bears delicate traces of aging – a poignant reminder of the mirror's storied past. Functionality is seamlessly woven into the tapestry of this piece, with wiring on the back for vertical hanging. It awaits to grace your home with its regal presence. This giltwood mirror is more than a reflective surface; it is a piece of history, an artifact that has witnessed the passing of time. Ideal for adding a touch of regal elegance to a living room, hallway, or bedroom, this mirror seamlessly blends the rich heritage of 19th-century France with timeless design, embodying the very essence of refined luxury.
