FRENCH 19TH CENTURY WALNUT ENFILADE WITH THREE DRAWERS AND DOORS, DIAMOND MOTIFS

$8,995

A French walnut enfilade from the 19th century with three drawers over three doors, black inlaid diamond motifs, brass hardware and tapered feet. Introduce a touch of French elegance to your living space with this exquisite walnut enfilade from the 19th century. Crafted in France, this enfilade showcases a perfect blend of functionality and sophisticated design. The enfilade features a rectangular top divided into three panels, adding a sense of proportion and balance to the piece. The facade is meticulously organized, with three drawers positioned above three doors. The drawers are adorned with horizontal black inlaid diamond motifs, beautifully complementing the overall design. The doors below feature vertical black inlaid diamond motifs, creating a captivating visual contrast. Open the doors to reveal inner shelves, providing ample storage space for your belongings. The interior is designed to accommodate your organizational needs, ensuring a clutter-free living area.

Enhancing the overall appeal are the short tapered legs with brass feet, which not only provide stability but also add a touch of elegance. The combination of walnut and brass creates a harmonious blend of warm tones and metallic accents. Adding to its charm are the pilaster-style motifs that separate the doors from one another, adding a touch of architectural detail to the piece. The sides of the enfilade are adorned with recessed panels, further showcasing the craftsmanship and attention to detail. The back is unfinished, as is typical of pieces from this era. This detail adds to the authenticity and historical significance of the piece. This French walnut enfilade from the 19th century is a timeless and versatile addition to any interior. Its stunning design, intricate inlaid motifs, and functional storage make it a standout piece that will elevate the style and organization of your space.
