

FRENCH BLEACHED WALNUT FAUX-BAMBOO MIRROR WITH INTERSECTING CORNERS, CIRCA 1900

$2,750

A slender French rustic Turn of the Century rectangular faux-bamboo bleached walnut mirror from the early 20th century, with intersecting corners, slanted accents and nicely weathered patina. Created in France at the Turn of the Century which saw the transition between the 19th to the 20th, this rustic mirror features a slender rectangular silhouette made of a thin faux bamboo bleached walnut frame showcasing intersecting corners with slanted accents at the top, surrounding a central mirror plate with signs of aging. The back is made of planked panels. Presenting a nicely distressed appearance, this French Turn of the Century bleached walnut faux bamboo mirror circa 1900 charms us with its rustic appearance and lovely color, making it a great choice to decorate any wall, particularly displayed in a mountain cabin or country home, perhaps hung above a side table, a credenza or in an entryway.
