FRENCH LOUIS-PHILIPPE STYLE MIRROR WITH EBONIZED FRAME AND GILT ACCENTS, 1900S

$2,400

A French Louis-Philippe style wall mirror from the early 20th century, with gilded and ebonized accents. Born in France during the early years of the 20th century, this exquisite mirror presents the stylistic characteristics of the Louis-Philippe period. Presenting a rectangular silhouette adorned with rounded corners at the top, the mirror showcases an ebonized frame, accented with giltwood moldings, adorned with discreet radiating patterns. With its clean lines and beautifully contrasting colors, this French Louis-Philippe style mirror, circa 1900 will be a wonderful decorative item that will enliven any wall, particularly placed above a console table, enfilade of commode.
