FRENCH MID-18TH CENTURY AUBUSSON VERTICAL TAPESTRY DEPICTING A BIRD IN THE WOODS

$16,500

A French Royal Manufacture of Aubusson woven tapestry from the mid 18th century depicting a bird standing in luscious vegetation. Created during the Mid-18th Century in the Aubusson manufactures located in central France, this vertical woven tapestry depicts a richly decorated scene. An elegant bird is standing alone at the edge of the woods. He is surrounded by large trees and luscious foliage. The tapestry presents green, blue, beige and brown tones and is surrounded by a simple border. The back is lined. With its skillful depiction and nice proportions, this French Royal Manufacture of Aubusson woven tapestry from the mid 18th century will warm any space, placed in a living room or foyer!
