FRENCH MIDCENTURY IRON BAKER'S RACK WITH BRASS ACCENTS AND WHITE MARBLE SHELVES

$4,500

A French vintage iron 'grille à pain' baker's rack from the Mid-20th Century, with brass accents, scrolling patterns and new white marble shelves. Created in France during the Midcentury period, this iron rack, called a grille à pain in French, was conceived to store and present the fresh baguettes, pains and ficelles made by the baker that day. Made of iron, the rack boasts lovely scrolling accents and is adorned with brass details whose golden colors compliment the black iron beautifully. The shelves, each secured inside a brass frame, are made of new white veined marble. With its great use and elegant lines, this French grille à pain baker's rack from the mid 20th century will compliment any kitchen's décor beautifully!
