

FRENCH TRAMP ART TURN OF THE CENTURY MIRROR WITH GEOMETRIC MOTIFS, CIRCA 1900

$1,950

A French Tramp Art Turn of the Century mirror from circa 1900, with hand-carved geometric motifs and protruding corners.

Delve into the captivating world of French Tramp Art with this Turn of the Century mirror from circa 1900, a piece that showcases the unique charm and meticulous detail of hand-carved craftsmanship. This mirror, adorned with geometric motifs and featuring protruding corners, is a testament to the intricate artistry and creativity of the era. The mirror's frame is a tapestry of hand-carved geometric motifs, with raised concentric circles, pyramids, and diamonds meticulously arranged to create a textured, three-dimensional effect. Each motif adds depth and intrigue to the piece, inviting the eye to explore and admire the complexity of its design. The protruding corners of the frame accentuate its geometric nature, adding an element of boldness and architectural interest. In a modern home, this French Tramp Art mirror serves as a striking decorative element, perfect for adding a touch of historical elegance and artisanal charm to any room. It can be placed in a foyer to create a welcoming focal point, above a fireplace in a living room to anchor the space with a sense of history, or in a bedroom to add an artistic touch to the decor. The mirror's intricate design and rich history make it a versatile and captivating addition to any interior, blending seamlessly with various styles and bringing the allure of Turn of the Century Tramp Art into your home.

Height: 21 in (53.34 cm)

Width: 19.5 in (49.53 cm)

Depth: 2 in (5.08 cm)

SKU: A 4657