FRENCH TURN OF THE CENTURY FAUX BAMBOO MIRROR WITH SLANTED ACCENTS, CIRCA 1900

$1,500

A rustic French Turn of the Century faux-bamboo mirror from circa 1900 with intersecting corners and slanted accents. Introducing a delightful piece of rustic French charm, this Turn of the Century faux-bamboo mirror, circa 1900, weaves an aura of antique allure and tasteful elegance. Crafted with impeccable attention to detail, this mirror features a faux-bamboo frame adorned with intersecting corners, harmoniously coupled with charming slanted accents that evoke the rustic simplicity of French countryside living. The frame, meticulously finished to replicate the raw beauty of bamboo, encases a clear mirror plate that reflects images with time-honored clarity. This mirror, beyond its practical use, becomes an artistic statement that effortlessly blends with diverse interiors. The piece is wired at the back, poised for effortless vertical hanging, thus integrating seamlessly into your chosen space. Whether it's your living room, hallway, or bedroom, this mirror imbues a warm and inviting ambiance. A timeless classic from the Turn of the Century, this French faux-bamboo mirror is more than a reflection; it's an emblem of a bygone era, and a quintessential accent piece that brings depth, character, and a whisper of French elegance to your abode.
