

LOUIS XVI FRENCH 1900S FOOTSTOOL WITH CARVED RAIS DE CŒURS AND ROSETTES

$975

A French Louis XVI style footstool from circa 1900 with carved rais-de-cœur and rosettes motifs on the apron, fluted legs and custom upholstery. This charming French Louis XVI style footstool, dating from around 1900, is a representation of the refined aesthetics of this era. The intricately carved rais-de-cœur and rosette motifs adorning the apron exemplify the attention to detail that defines the Louis XVI style. These delicate embellishments add a touch of sophistication and elegance to the piece. The fluted legs further enhance the overall grace and symmetry, characteristic of this design period. The top is rectangular and has been lovingly reupholstered with a linen fabric. This fabric imparts a timeless, neutral quality that effortlessly complements various interior styles. In your home, this footstool can serve a multitude of purposes. It can be a refined accent piece in your living room. Place it by your favorite armchair, and it becomes the perfect spot to rest your feet as you unwind with a good book or a cup of tea. This Louis XVI style footstool effortlessly marries form and function. Its classic design ensures it can harmonize with a range of interior decor, whether your style leans towards traditional, vintage, or even transitional aesthetics. Welcome the elegance of French Louis XVI design into your home with this footstool. Its beautifully crafted details and custom upholstery make it a versatile and sophisticated addition to any living space, where it can both enhance your decor and provide a comfortable respite.
