LOUIS XVI STYLE 19TH CENTURY FRENCH STAMPED PIHOUEE FOOTSTOOL WITH CARVED DÉCOR

$1,100

A French Louis XVI style wooden footstool from the late 19th century stamped Alexandre Pihouée with carved base, tapered fluted legs and needlepoint upholstery. Indulge in the refined elegance of the late 19th-century French Louis XVI style with this exquisite wooden footstool, bearing the distinguished stamp of Alexandre Pihouée. This footstool exemplifies the impeccable craftsmanship and design associated with this era. Its carved base is a testament to the skilled hands that shaped it. Delicate fluting graces the tapered legs, lending a sense of sophistication and grace. The woodwork is a harmonious blend of form and function, showcasing the hallmark neoclassical elements of the Louis XVI style. The needlepoint upholstery adds a layer of luxury to this already impressive piece. As a functional accent, this footstool is versatile. It can serve to prop up your feet and unwind, or as a decorative statement in your bedroom or dressing area. Its timeless beauty and historical significance make it a conversation starter and a cherished heirloom. Stamped with Alexandre Pihouée's name, this footstool carries with it a piece of history. It's not just a piece of furniture; it's a glimpse into the craftsmanship and style of a bygone era. Incorporate it into your home to add a touch of timeless elegance and a dash of French sophistication.
