

MIDCENTURY FRENCH IRON AND ZEBRA HIDE GUÉRIDON TABLE WITH TRIPOD SCROLLING BASE

$1,495

A French iron guéridon side table from the mid 20th century with circular zebra hide top and tripod base. This striking mid-20th century French guéridon side table beautifully combines rugged and refined elements, creating a piece that is both stylish and functional. The circular top is covered in zebra hide, attached with a meticulous nailhead trim that enhances its exotic appeal. This vibrant top sits on a slender iron tripod base, which concludes in elegant pad feet. Each leg is embellished with incised X-Form motifs, adding a decorative touch that complements the wild pattern of the zebra hide. A sphere detail connected to the underside adds a discreet layer of visual interest, lending a sculptural quality to the overall design. The table's weathered patina contributes a sense of history and character, making it an excellent choice for those who appreciate pieces with a story. Perfect as a statement piece in a living room, den, or office, this guéridon table can serve as a sophisticated spot for resting drinks, displaying a stack of books, or showcasing a vase of fresh flowers. Its unique design ensures it will be a conversation starter in any space, seamlessly blending into eclectic, traditional, or modern decor schemes.
