OVAL ITALIAN 1800S BLEACHED WALNUT DROP-LEAF TRESTLE TABLE WITH DRAWERS

$6,500

An Oval Italian bleached walnut drop-leaf table from the early 19th century, with trestle base and lateral drawers. Born in Italy during the early years of the 19th century, this Italian table features an oval drop-leaf top. The top sits on a trestle base adorned with a nicely carved cross stretcher. Each leaf is 12.5 inches, giving this table a depth of 30.25 inches with one leaf up or 42.75 if both are. The table features two inconspicuous drawers, one at each end of the table, above the legs. With its elegant lines, natural finish and versatile quality, this Italian oval bleached walnut table circa 1800 will make for a great center table or serving table. Drop-leaf tables make wonderful problem solvers as they provide a great flexibility of dimensions and placement.
