PAIR OF BIEDERMEIER STYLE 1900S WALNUT SPOON BACK CHAIRS WITH NEW UPHOLSTERY

$5,500

A pair of Biedermeier style walnut spoon back chairs from the early 20th century with curving backs, saber legs and new linen upholstery. Created during the Turn of the Century, this pair of walnut spoon back chairs showcases the stylistic characteristics of the Biedermeier era. Each chair features a spoon back cradling beautifully the human body and flowing seamlessly into the low arm supports. The chairs have been newly and professionally reupholstered with a double welt linen fabric whose neutral tones compliments the warmth of the walnut beautifully. The chairs are each raised on four saber legs. The simplicity and the clean lines of the ensemble is characteristic of the Biedermeier style, a restrained form of neoclassical furniture designed for private homes. With their elegant silhouette and walnut grain, this pair of Biedermeier style spoon chairs circa 1900 will make for a wonderful addition to any home, perhaps placed in a living room or bedroom.
