PAIR OF ENGLISH REGENCY 1820S EBONIZED AND GILT STOOLS WITH NEW UPHOLSTERY

$6,750

A pair of English Regency period ebonized and gilt stools from the early 19th century, with new upholstery. Created in England during the first quarter of the 19th century, each of this pair of Regency stools features a rectangular seat recently recovered with linen fabric, secured with brass nailheads. The stool is resting on an ebonized base made of four saber legs connected to one another through two eye catching stretchers, adorned with gilt medallions and classical faces. With their elegant lines and contrasting colors, this pair of English Regency period ebonized stools circa 1820 will bring a touch of refinement to any home.
