PAIR OF FRENCH NEOCLASSICAL STYLE WALNUT CONSOLE TABLES WITH MARBLE TOPS

$10,800

A pair of French Neoclassical style walnut console tables from the late 19th century with red and grey marble tops, brass and gilt accents and single drawers. Created in France during the later years of the 19th century, each of this pair of walnut console tables features a rectangular variegated red and grey marble top sitting above a single dovetailed drawer. Fitted with a linear brass handle, each drawer is surrounded by a thin gilt frame and is flanked with brass reeded accents in the corners. The sides and back showcase a similar décor creating a perfect visual continuity. Each table is raised on four fluted tapering legs adorned with gilt accents on the upper and lower rings. With their clean Neoclassical lines, marble tops and complimenting colors, this pair of French walnut console tables from the late 19th century will bring a touch of undeniable elegance to any home décor, whether placed in a living room or foyer!
