PAIR OF MIDCENTURY FRENCH ROCOCO STYLE OAK STOOLS WITH SCALLOPED APRONS

$3,995

A pair of French Rococo style oak stools from the Midcentury period, with scraped back finish, scalloped aprons, cabriole legs and new custom linen upholstery. Imbued with the charm of the French Rococo style, this pair of mid-century oak stools captivates with its artfully scraped back finish, revealing layers of history and craftsmanship. The stools boast scalloped aprons, an elegant nod to the playful and ornate Rococo aesthetic. Cabriole legs, a hallmark of the style, provide a graceful foundation, their curves and contours adding a sense of movement and refinement. Newly upholstered in custom linen, these stools blend the allure of antique furniture with the comfort and practicality of modern textiles. The neutral fabric complements the oak's natural beauty, making these stools versatile additions to any interior. Perfectly suited for use as additional seating in a living room, these stools can also serve as decorative accents in a bedroom or dressing area. Whether placed beside a vanity, beneath a console table, or as standalone pieces, they contribute both functionality and a touch of French elegance to a space. The blend of Rococo inspiration with mid-century design ensures these stools are both a conversation starter and a timeless addition to any home.
