PAIR OF VINTAGE AMERICAN MIDCENTURY IRON DUCK SCULPTURES WITH WEATHERED PATINA

$1,800

A pair of vintage American iron quacking ducks from the mid 20th century, with distressed patina. Made in the USA during the midcentury period, each of this pair of iron sculptures depicts a duck firmly planted on its palmate. A great sense of life is conveyed to us thanks to the open beak of one of them, giving us the impression that we can hear the quacking sound. Boasting a nicely weathered patina, this pair of midcentury iron ducks will make for a great addition to any garden!
