PAIR OF WALNUT WALL MIRRORS MADE OF 19TH CENTURY BIEDERMEIER COMPONENTS

$8,500

A small pair of Austrian walnut mirrors from the 19th century made of old Biedermeier components, with dark brown color, ebonized reeded motifs and turned finials with gilt accents. Immerse yourself in Austrian craftsmanship with this pair of modern walnut mirrors, each meticulously crafted using original 19th-Century Biedermeier components. Designed to complement classic and modern interiors alike, these mirrors showcase the charm and elegance of Austrian design, resonating with an appealing blend of timelessness and sophistication. The design features an alluring dark brown hue that emphasizes the rich walnut construction. The mirrors' upper sections are accented with two rows of ebonized reeded motifs, adding a tasteful contrast that further emphasizes their antique character. The pièce de résistance is the set of turned finials at the top, discreetly gilded to enhance their standout quality and lend an air of regal elegance to each mirror. The generous mirror surfaces reflect light beautifully, amplifying the perceived space while showcasing the detailed craftsmanship on the frame. These Austrian walnut mirrors would make a striking addition to any setting, from a traditionally styled living room to a sophisticated bedroom suite. A perfect blend of function and style, these mirrors represent a fantastic opportunity to bring a touch of Austrian history into your home. By choosing this pair, you are not just opting for home decoration; you are investing in a piece of the past, an artifact that tells a story of the exquisite craftsmanship of the Biedermeier period.
