RUSTIC FRENCH 1880S ARMCHAIR WITH ANTLER BACK AND ARMS, CUSHION

$7,200

A French rustic armchair circa 1880 with antlers back, arms, custom linen cushion and carved animal legs. This French armchair, dating back to the last quarter of the 19th century, will instantly enchant the viewer with its rustic antlers back, arms and animal legs. The chair embodies the essence of French rustic design and craftsmanship from this period, combining the charm of nature and the elegance of skilled artistry in a harmonious and timeless fashion. The antlers adorning the back and arms of the chair add a touch of rustic sophistication and grace to the design, creating a sense of fluidity and movement that is both visually appealing and comfortable. This chair combined with the warmth and depth of the wood, imbues the chair with character and elegance, making it a captivating addition to any home. The newly upholstered linen cushion, tailored to fit the chair's seat, offers a practical and comfortable seating solution that enhances the chair's overall aesthetic appeal. The natural color and texture of the linen fabric create a delightful visual contrast to the wood and antlers, adding a touch of refined comfort to the rustic charm of the piece. The carved animal legs in the front and saber ones in the back serve as a beautiful foundation for the chair, complementing the antlers and adding to the overall visual harmony of the piece. With its charming appearance and antlers back and arms, this French rustic armchair from circa 1880 will serve as a delightful addition to any home, infusing any space with character and charm.
