

SMALL RUSTIC FAUX-BAMBOO 1920S FRENCH WALNUT MIRROR WITH INTERSECTING CORNERS

$1,600

A small French faux-bamboo 1920s mirror made of walnut with intersecting corners, reeded accents and rustic character. Embrace the allure of the Roaring Twenties with this dainty French faux-bamboo mirror from the 1920s, a decorative gem that speaks of the age's exquisite taste. Crafted with a discerning eye, this petite mirror is made of walnut, a material known for its enduring beauty. The frame's rustic character is accentuated by the walnut's rich, natural tones. The clear mirror plate is immaculate, capturing the splendor of your surroundings while invoking the allure of yesteryears. With its small proportions, this mirror is perfect for adding a touch of antique charm to any nook or corner. It is wired in the back for vertical hanging, ready to grace your walls effortlessly. Incorporate this French faux-bamboo mirror into your home decor for a dose of 1920s elegance. Whether you are seeking to add historical richness to your living space or looking for that perfect accent piece for your entryway, this mirror combines the romanticism of the past with the practicality of the present in the most delightful way.
