THREE-PIECE ITALIAN BAROQUE STYLE OVAL TOP TABLE WITH CARVED LYRE SHAPED LEGS

$18,000

A three-piece Italian Baroque style oval top wooden table from the early 19th century, made of a side table, a pair of demilunes and lyre-shaped legs. Created in Italy during the first quarter of the 19th century, this Italian Baroque style table features three individual sections connected to one another through metal hooks. These sections are made of a pair of demi-lune tables flanking a rectangular top side table. These piece can be used separately, as a side table and pair of demilunes, or together as they form an oval top table. They are all raised on Baroque style bases showcasing carved lyre-shaped legs connected to one another through a cross stretcher of similar style. The tables boast a nicely weathered appearance on their top perfectly contrasted by the elegance of their legs. With its Baroque lines, unusual features and brown patina, this Italian three-piece oval top table circa 1820 will make for a great addition to any home! The demilune tables measure 47.25" W x 23.25" D x 31.5" H. The middle table is 47.25" W x 23.5" D x 31.5" H.
