

PAIR OF CHINESE EXPORT BLUE AND WHITE PORCELAIN JARS MADE INTO WIRED TABLE LAMPS

$3,750

A pair of Chinese Export blue and white porcelain jars with hand-painted Pagoda landscape scenes and newly mounted as table lamps on lucite bases. Each of this pair of porcelain jars features a blue and white décor showcasing various landscape scenes adorning each side of the square-shaped body. Two pagodas connected to one another through a wall adorn one of the sides, while an anonymous Chinese figure crosses a bridge in the foreground. Another side features a serene landscape with two figures (one of them sitting, the other one standing) conversing with one another. A beautiful pagoda with a large tree and a mountain in the background decorates another side. These Chinese Export jars have been newly made into table lamps that are wired for the US and are ready to be plugged. They have also been mounted on square shaped lucite bases whose transparent quality compliments the blue and white porcelain beautifully. With their skillfully painted décor and lovely colors, this pair of Chinese Export jars made into table lamps will make for a wonderful addition to any home, perhaps displayed atop a pair of demilune tables or a credenza!
